Don't You Want to Make at Least One Fine Christmas Gift?

ISN'T there some one person you would like to remember with a Christmas gift that will be beautiful, that will be of solid value, that will last practically forever, that will be a source of pleasure and profit as well, that will be a constant reminder of the kindly feeling that prompted its bestowal? We can help you to just such a present and the best part of it is that it only calls one dollar from your Christmas purse. The rest is paid from month to month after your pocket book is eased of the holiday strain.

This advertisement tells about it—about the sale of our special edition of Dr. Ridpath's great "History of the World" at half price and on little monthly payments.

The Books Themselves Are 11 Inches Tall. Set Weighs 62 Pounds.

It Only Calls for One Dollar Now, Rest of Your Christmas Money Use for Other Things

OVER 50,000 sets of Ridpath's Great "History of the World" have been sold at prices just about double the Wanamaker History Club price.

It is selling by subscription to-day at double our price.

By taking an entire edition, we bring the books direct from publisher to reader, and save you one-half WHILE THE EDITION LASTS.

Our edition is identical in all respects with the regular subscription edition; the saving comes about by manufacturing on a large scale and by cutting out all middlemen's profits.

The half price is only half the story—here is the other half. By joining the Club and paying $1 membership fee, you may have the entire set sent you at once and pay for it in $2 monthly payments.

If you want the books and wish to be sure of having them delivered before Christmas, use the triangular coupon in the LEFT-HAND corner of this page. If you desire further information before ordering, use the coupon in the RIGHT-HAND corner.

President McKinley Says:

"I can commend Ridpath's 'History of the World' to the scholar as well as to the plain people generally."

What more would you have?

For the scholar it is reliable and accurate, convenient for reference, sound for study.

For the plain people it is clear and interesting. Open it at random, you will read page after page. Or, if you begin at page 1 and read the 9 volumes through, you'll know more about this old world than the average college graduate knows.

A new volume, just added, brings the history down to this very year, including all the great triumphs of peace and war during these past few years. The first volume begins with earliest times. In between is the complete story of the whole world.

If you buy this greatest of histories for your boy or girl you will surely end by reading it yourself.

If you purchase it for yourself you'll catch your children reading it. Fortunately, the volumes are as substantially made as they are delightfully written.

Ridpath's History Contains

9 massive volumes, nearly 7,000 large double column pages (equivalent of 70 ordinary volumes), over 4,000 engravings, 35 historical maps in color, 10 chronological charts in color, 14 colored plates depicting types of the races, 33 genealogical diagrams, 8 colored reproductions of etchings on tint blocks. A picture to every page or two.
